Do you know about Murdoch's Graduate Certificate and Masters of Education?

Master of Education AED 75,000 | 24 months part-time

The Murdoch University Master of Education program is designed for teachers, educational leaders, administrators, and other education professionals seeking to extend and deepen their expertise, and professionals with education roles seeking professional development and renewal.

Graduate Certificate in Education AED 25,000 | 8 months part-time

The Graduate Certificate in Education suite of majors is designed specifically to upskill current qualified teachers in particular areas of need, interest and different phases of learning. The course aims to introduce new pedagogies, content and perspectives on Leadership and International Education into current teaching practices.

Murdoch University Dubai offers the only postgraduate education program in the UAE that awards the IB Certificate for Teaching & Learning, with or without prior IB experience.
